

THE LOUISVILLE DAILY JOURNAL.

VOLUME XXXVIII.

State Library

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1867.

NUMBER 3.

KING'S PATENT WROUGHT IRON TUBULAR ARCH BRIDGES

HAVE been in use throughout the Northern States for the last five years, and are superior to all other bridges.

Tumplks, County Roads, & Railroads.

Hundreds have been built and put up, and with great success, and stand every test required of a good bridge.

Bridges constructed wholly of

WROUGHT IRON.

won a plan combining in the greatest degree

Economy, Durability, and Strength.

They can fail to recommend themselves to persons in power.

The undersigned having secured the SOLE right to manufacture and put up these Bridges, will guarantee to stand every test required of a good bridge.

Address G. H. LEWIS, President, and the Secretary, Louisville, Ky., or F. C. M. Kelly, prompt, and responsible agents wanted. Circular lithographs, and prices sent on application to

Mr. ELIZA SPIEGELBERG,
100 West Main street, etc., etc.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE
LOUISVILLE JOURNAL CO.
Green street, between Third and Fourth.

Geo. D. PRENTICE, Editors.
PAUL E. SHIPLEY, Editor.
JOHN L. RIBBY, Chief Local.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1867.

IMPEACHMENT.—We laid a large amount of paper upon this subject before our readers yesterday—the testimony of General Grant, the report of the majority of the Judiciary Committee, and two minority reports. The whole was of course read with deep and universal interest. We do not see that there is any possible room for a difference of opinion as to the result, unless Congress, mindless alike of truth, or of the honor of the country, should be induced to do so.

The radical and responsible agents wanted. Circular lithographs, and prices sent on application to

Mr. ELIZA SPIEGELBERG,
100 West Main street, etc., etc.

Employing only Chemists and Perfumers

Corner of Floyd and Washington Streets, etc., etc.

Woodworth's Perfumes

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

Business cards will be inserted in this column at the rate of $1.50 per line per month.

BOOKS.

BRADLEY & GILBERT, Booksellers, Books and Manufacturers of Blank Books, Paper and Bound Books, etc., 10th Street, corner Third and Green, opposite the P. O.

CLARKE, JOHN W. Bookseller and Stationer, 12th Street, corner Second and Main.

BUSINESS COLLEGES.

BOYD'S LOUISVILLE COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, 10th Street, Business College, N.E. corner Fourth and Third Streets.

CARRIAGES.

SPEYER, W. F. Carriage and Buggy Manufacturer, 10th Street, West Market, Sixth and Seventh.

CLOTHING.

SPROULE & MANDEVILLE, Fine Clothing Store, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

DYER, HENRY, Merchant Tailor, No. 12 Main st., bet. Third and Fourth.

COAL.

KENNEDY & IRWIN, Coal Dealers, No. 10 Main Street, between Second and Third.

HUGHES, N. W. Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Pittsburgh and other Coals, 49th Street, between Second and Third.

COMMISSION.

GARDNER & CO. Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, 10th Street, between Second and Third.

BENEDICT, D. S. & SONS, Grocers and Commission Merchants, No. 11 Main St., bet. Third and Fourth.

MCGREE, CUNNINGHAM & CO. Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, 10th Street, between Second and Third, south side.

DORN, BLACKHOUSE & CO. Com. Merchants and Jobbers, Bonded Warehouses, 8 W. Main, between First and Second Streets.

NEWCOMB, BUCHANAN & CO. Wholesale Grocers and Commission Merchants, 10th Street, between Second and Third.

DRUGS.

WILDER & CO. Wholesale Druggists, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

WILDER, J. E. & CO. Wholesale Druggists, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

MURRAY, N. H. Steamboat Drug Store, No. 6th Street. Prescriptions compounded at all hours.

DRY GOODS.

BARKER & CO. Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Dry Goods, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

KINSELLA & HAYDON, Dealers in Dry Goods, 10th Street, north side, near Preston.

JOHN M. CO. Wholesale Dry Goods, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

ENGRAVING.

HAGERTY & MARSHALL, All kinds of Prints, Lithographs, Engravings, Etc., 8th Street, bet. Third and Market Streets.

FURNITURE.

THE LOVINGSTON FURNITURE MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Corner of Ninth and West Jefferson streets. All kinds of Furniture, household, wholesale and retail, at the lowest Western prices.

FANCY GOODS.

SWANSON & CO. Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Fancy Goods, 10th Street, between Second and Fourth.

GROCERIES.

HIBBETT & SON, Wholesale and Retail Grocers, 10th Street, between Second and Third.

HIBBETT & SON, Wholesale and Retail Grocers, No. 12 Market st., bet. Second and Third.

HATS—FURNISHING GOODS.

GREEN & GREEN, Hats, Furs, and Furnishing Goods, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

HARDWARE.

HAGERTY & MARSHALL, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Hardware, 8th Street, between Main and Madison.

INSURANCE.

KENNEDY, BENZ, D. Insurance—Life, Fire and Marine, 10th Street, 10th and Market.

IRON WORKS.

THE IRON WORKS, Manufacturing Foundation, dry and Ornamental Iron Works, Green st., bet. Second and Third.

LIQUORS.

THOMPSON & CO. 10th Street, between Old and New 7th Streets, bet. Main and Market.

MATHEMATICAL.

SINGER, E. G. in main street under No. 10th Street, Scientific Optical and Mathematical Instruments.

MUSIC.

TRIPP, LOVETT & CO. Piano-Vox, Calif. Trips, Organs, and Musical Merchandise, Nos. 2 and 4 Jefferson, bet. Third and Fourth.

PROFESSIONAL.

HARLAN, JOHN, Attorney at Law, Louisville, Ky., Office Jefferson street, opposite Court House.

LANING MILLS.

HEY, R. B. & CO. Placing Mill, 8th Street, bet. Main and Madison.

PAPER DEALER.

DU PONT, A. V. & CO. Paper Manufacturers, 10th Street, between Main and Madison.

REAL ESTATE.

KY. & CO. Real Estate, Bank of Ky., 25th Main st., bet. Main, rent, and collect.

RESTAURANT.

ST. CHARLES RESTAURANT, 8th Street, bet. Main and Market, 8th and Fifth st., bet. Main and Market.

STEAMBOAT AGENTS.

M. COOPER, Agent, 10th Street, bet. Second and Third.

SADDLERY.

MOUNT, W. J. Manufacturer and Dealer in Saddlery, Harness, and Leather Goods, 10th Street, bet. Main and Market, Louisville, Ky.

UPHOLSTERER.

NICHOLS, WILL, Upholsterer and Mattress Manufacturer, 10th Street, bet. Main and Market.

TIN AND SHEET IRON.

LITHGOW, J. & CO. Northwest corner of Main and Third Streets, Manufacturers of Tin and Sheet Iron.

T. J. NICOLSON, Tin Roofing, Stove and Boiler Works, 10th Street, bet. Main and Market.

VARIETIES.

ROGERS, A. C. & SON, House Furnishing Goods, No. 10th Street, bet. Market st., bet. Fourth and Fifth.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY.

FLETCHER & BENNETT, 10th W. Main st., bet. Jefferson, Diamonds, Silver-Ware, Jewelry.

KITT'S, JEWELLER, Diamonds, Watches, Silvers-Ware, Jewelry, Diamonds, Silver-Ware.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 25.

Weather cloudy, with occasional rains, and getting cold.

The river is falling, with six feet on the bars from Cairo to Vicksburg.

The arrivals continue irregular, owing to the fog and low water. In the lower Arkansas there are 18 inches water.

Business is dull.

The Edinburgh has loaded yet.

Down-Rubicon and McPham. Up-McDonald and Commonwealth.

A fire early this morning destroyed the Boston No. 2, lying below the levee. She was owned by Dean, of Cincinnati, and Wait, of Memphis. She was valued at $4,000, and was fully insured. She was nothing but a hull and a cabin, her machinery having been removed. She was brought down here to be sold and converted into a wharf-boat.

The M. S. Mephisto laid up in a fog a New Madrid Saturday night, and, by invitation of the Captain, some of the residents of the place came aboard to join with the passengers in a dance. During the evening some intoxicated ruffians came aboard and called for whisky, which was denied them; whereupon they drew revolvers and fired into the cabin, but fortunately wounded no one. After some trouble they were put ashore, when they again fired, wounding all the way into the state-rooms. Captain McDonald was slightly grazed by a ball, which passed between his legs, and a passenger was likewise grazed on the breast.

Cotton closed heavy at 14 $\frac{1}{2}$. The stock on hand is 12,000 bales.

Special dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

LINCOLN, Ky., Nov. 26.

The Methodist convention met in their church this afternoon—W. F. Butler, of Jefferson county, President. There are sixty counties represented. The proceedings are harmonious and orderly. There is a disposition manifested by the members to conciliate all animosity. The President made a pacific speech, and said that the colored men contended for civil and political rights—not social equality in any respect. Adjourned.

Other delegates are expected.

Meetings held to-night in different places.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.

Mr. Conkling presented a memorial from the Union League Club asking Congress to prevent the mustering out of the volunteer service General Sickles and Howard. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had emanated from that department during the last few months. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Miller was present to give additional correspondence relative to the removal of Motley, late Minister to Vienna.

Mr. Grimes introduced a joint resolution that the Presidents of the Senate and the Speaker of the House adjourn their respective houses without day on Monday next at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Sumner suggested that it made 12 o'clock. Would they (he asked) leave to the President on Monday, so that he could take advantage of their absence to make an appointment which, as the next Congress might sit until mid-autumn or autumn, might be valid until the day of that session?

Mr. Grimes modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Sherman did not see that any object could be found in passing the resolution. The Senator, however, who would be satisfied without taking that course.

Mr. Fessenden thought there was no great danger to be apprehended from a hiatus of half an hour, but he suggested that it was better to have it right.

Mr. Maynard suggested that the committee on ways and means be authorized to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Baker offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of changing the laws to the extent of repealing the tax on cotton, and adopting a scale of revenue which would yield only sufficient, with the surplus in the Treasury, to pay the expenses of the government and interest of the public debt, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill relative to the appointment of Assistant Attorney General, providing the same shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate. Mr. Wilson suggested that the propriety of this measure was to be determined by the number of soldiers and sailors in the country which had

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE
LOUISVILLE JOURNAL CO.
JOURNAL OFFICE BUILDING,
Green Street, between Third and Fourth.

PAUL P. CHAPIN, Editor
JOHN L. KIRBY, Chief Law.
SUBSCRIPTIONS BY MAIL—IN ADVANCE.
Daily, $1.00; for 6 months, $6.00;
for 12 months, $12.00;
Weekly, $1.00;
Monthly, $3.00;
Yearly, $30.00;
Money in registered letters or post-office orders.

Arrival and Departure of Mails per Rail.

	Mails.	Arrived.	Depart.
1st Mail.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
2d Eastern.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
3d Middle.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
4th Western.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
5th Southern.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
6th Northern.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
7th Nashville and Southern.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
8th Lex. and Frankfort.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
9th Louisville.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
10th Lexington and Bardstown.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
11th Louisville.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
12th Evansville Mail Boat.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
LEAVES TUESDAY.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Wednesday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Monday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Tuesday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Wednesday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Thursday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Friday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Saturday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Sunday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Accommodation.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Monday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Departs.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Arrives Tuesday.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Evening Express.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.
Night Express.	12 M.	12 M.	12 M.

Arrival and Departure of Trains.

	Departures.	Arrive.	Depart.
Custumal.	10 A. M. & 2 P. M.; Sundays 2 P. M.
All stages on the river, to Louisville.	4 P. M.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1867.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

EVENING DISPATCHES.

RICHMOND, Nov. 25.—Judge Underwood received a telegram from Judge Chase saying that he would be present this morning at Davis's trial.

Among the witnesses are General Lee and sons, Gen. Porter of Grant's staff, ex-Gov. Letcher and Gen. Francis H. Smith of Lexington.

Up to the arrival of the adjournment of the court the crowd, consisting chiefly of blacks, quietly dispersed.

The panel out of which the jury for the trial is to be drawn is one-third colored men.

Judge Underwood yesterday granted the prayer of Gen. Imboden asking for a mandamus to compel Gen. Schofield to permit him to vote. It is returnable on the 5th of December.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 25.—

It is reported that an election riot took place at Beaufort, S. C., on Wednesday, on Wadmalan Island, and a number of whites and blacks are said to be killed. No authority for the information has been received, but a detachment of troops were sent to the island yesterday morning.

ATLANTA, Nov. 26.—

In the Constitution Convention yesterday a resolution was introduced providing for the removal of the convention from Alabama to New York city after Jan. 1st.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Nov. 26.—

A fire here yesterday destroyed Barnes' building, and partially destroyed the adjoining houses. Several fishing vessels were also destroyed. Loss about $50,000; partially insured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—

Last evening, at Bergen, N. J., a quantity of nitro-glycerine, used for blasting, exploded while in the hands of a workman, who was heating it. In an instant all the inmates of the building were blown away, and of the house not a fragment remained. The explosion was so violent that the shop shared the same fate, while at the same instant a shock like an earthquake shook every building within a mile and a half of the scene, and every house adjacent was damaged.

The Herald's Washington special says: "We are reliably informed that Chief Justice Chase is opposed Jeff. Davis being tried before Judge Underwood or by negro jury. The Government not ready to proceed with the trial."

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—

Quite a large audience was at the Woman's Suffrage meeting held at the Monte Carlo Library Hall. Mrs. Stanton and Miss Anthony made short speeches, giving an account of their labor and its effect in Kansas, and making strong appeals for the cause of woman suffrage. The meeting was taken up by George Francis Train, who spoke three times in his usual rambling egotistical manner, making no points worthy of note, and accompanying nothing except keeping an audience in good humor and getting himself nominated for the Presidency in 1868.

HARTFORD, Nov. 25.—

At the town election to-day the entire Democratic ticket was elected. The average majority is nearly 300.

SATURDAY, Nov. 25.—Reuben Hide Wadsworth, ex-Chancellor, is very low, and not expected to recover.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—

A rumor to our current this afternoon that the Senate had passed the bill of Internal Revenue has been abolished.

A Washington special says the new Committee on Ways and Means is opposed to the contraction policy of Secretary McCulloch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—

Major Bull and the Common Council of Columbus, O., attended the meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-day, and subsequently called on Major Hoffman.

PORT WYNN, Nov. 25.—

The pulpits of the city were filled generally by members of the Lutheran General Council. The school children, some more than others, were very favorably received. An important question will engage the attention of the Council. A church hymn book and liturgy, in the English and German languages, has been adopted and will soon be published.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—

Early this morning a young German named May Klinger shot his employer, Henry Weiter, in the head, and then broke Weiter's wife's skull with an ax. He robbed the wife of four hundred dollars and disappeared. Weiter and his wife are not yet dead, but they are in a very critical condition. The real cause of the tragedy is not known.

Weiner created much dissatisfaction in a London theatre by appearing with her clothes on.

Eugenie is growing a moustache.

Quebec keeps constantly on hand seven years' provisions for 5000 men, in anticipation of the Fenians.

Greeley's double leads have sunk his party.

Two troops of Japs are enlivening the South.

There are five hundred American students in the universities.

A Connecticut paper, the Hartford Times, calls Rhode Island "Little State."

Ten dollars will be the price of a dispatch over the Brest and New York cable.

A Southern boxer has shaved twelve men in twenty-five minutes, and claims the championship.

A scientific experimenter says that the tail of one rat applied to another rat will furnish a beauteous tail within three months.

Gen. Doyle, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, was recently victimized by a sharper, who professed to have been a military secretary to Maximilian.

ELOPEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

A WHITE WOMAN RUNS AWAY WITH A BLACK BLACKSMITH.

From the Charlotte Courier, Nov. 21.

A shocking case of elopement, and the first affair of the kind we have known in this city, occurred last Thursday night. The guilty parties are the wife of a white grocer, residing in Calhoun street, and a small wheelwright shop, and who went by the name of Sergeant Major Overton. The latter is said to have been a member of the Thirty-fifth Massachusetts regiment of regulars. On being questioned out of regard to his past, he said he was a small shopkeeper in Middle street, and for some time past, it is reported, has been taking his meals in the same house with the grocer and his wife. From report it appears he had been a soldier, valet, and vaudevillian, several love letters which had passed between them having been discovered since their departure. The correspondence shows that he had been urging her to leave him, promising that she should never want for anything that could contribute to her present or future happiness. Last Thursday the grocer went up to Sumner street, and the parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so well prepared up every portable article of value out of the house, and with her black lover left the city on the four o'clock train of the South Carolina Railroad on Friday morning. The parties were seen to be walking down the street together, the woman leading him, dressed as usual, an old colored woman, employed as cook, to keep company with the Major. The latter, however, told the cook that she would not be wanted that night, and might go home. The woman, however, had been so